

I am strongly opposed to BPL as it will for all practical purposes wipe out amateur HF communications. Please see the information filed by ARRL on this subject. Also, military, public safety and business communications will be obliterated.

Much more testing should be done by FCC before any similar BPL regulation is considered for enactment.

This is extremely urgent.